Provided they have passed the Patwaris examination and are substantive Patwaris or Sub-Inspectors of Consolidation of Holdings and provided further that no such person shall, in any case, claim right for being accepted or appointed as a Kanungo merely on the basis of having passed this examination”.

By order,
T. S. NEGI,
Financial Commissioner.

VIDHAN SABHA SECRETARIAT NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 14th September, 1964

No. 1-22/64-VS.—In exercise of the powers vested in him under Rule 283 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business of the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly, the Speaker, Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly has been pleased to issue the following Directions in regard to mode of giving notice of Questions and the manner of answering them etc.—

1. Notices of questions should be given on foolscap size paper on proforma available from the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly Secretariat. Questions should be written on its right half and left half may be left blank so that office may use it for notes and corrections, etc. Questions should be written correctly and in a legible hand to avoid difficulty in reading.
2. When an answer is given that the information is being collected it would be taken as if the Government have asked for postponement and that would be treated as a final postponement for two weeks. Such questions will again be fixed after two weeks of the date of the interim answer.
3. Whenever the Government is not in a position to answer short notice questions at short notice, it should send in writing briefly the reasons thereof so that the Speaker may be able to consider the matter properly and this would avoid unnecessary delay in taking further action on the question concerned.
4. When a Minister replies that the papers relating to a certain question, may be seen in his office, he should make them available in his office on the day on which the question is answered in the House and should himself come to his office that day half an hour earlier. In case the papers cannot be made available on that day, he should get the questions relating to him postponed to some other day.

5. If member deems it necessary to ask questions which have lapsed due to prorogation of the Assembly, he may give fresh notice for them enclosing the full text of the questions again to the Legislative Assembly Secretariat.
6. If a question is answered in the House all other questions which are substantially identical and fixed for subsequent dates become inadmissible and the members should co-operate with the Legislative Assembly Secretariat by informing it about their substantially identical questions fixed for any subsequent dates.
7. Questions relating to each Minister should be given on separate sheets of paper. If the notices of questions are not received in this manner it will not be possible for the Legislative Assembly Secretariat to take action on those questions and they will be returned back in original without any action.
8. Answers to starred questions may ordinarily be given on the very date for which it has been fixed in the agenda. But if the information wanted by the member is not collected in time and postponement of the questions for some future date becomes necessary the Minister concerned may then explaining the position accordingly apply for postponement at least three days before the date fixed for questions and unless there is some special reason the postponement may not be asked for more than two weeks. Ordinarily the postponement is allowed only once but if it is necessary to get their postponement for the second time an explanatory note showing causes may also be submitted along with the letter for postponement.
9. The Government departments should supply to the Assembly Secretariat ten copies of statements and schedules also which are attached to the answers of questions. If the enclosures to the answer to a question are inordinately long, less number of copies may be sent after taking prior permission of the Speaker for the same.
10. Questions postponement shall have precedence over other questions of the same class fixed for the same day and they will be printed in a separate annexure in the list of business.

By order,
D. B. LAL,
Secretary.
